

REBECCA MIDLES

LEADER | TEACHER | DESIGNER

Rebecca puts learners first and is committed to assisting with the creation of a learner-centered educational system that empowers leaders and educators to meet the individual academic and social-emotional needs of all learners. She is known for guiding district level transformation as a leader and as a consultant and has led this work as a teacher, site leader, district leader and board member in four states.

She has worked in several transformational systems in Alaska, California and Colorado that represent different scaling challenges from demographics to charters and comprehensive systems. Starting with some of the first district work nationally on competency-based/personalized learning in Alaska, Rebecca then helped design and create the first competency based high school. As a national consultant, she supported the most often cited CBE/PL districts and schools across the country. Rebecca was the district lead for competency-based learning in Lindsay Unified School District in California, as well as the Executive Director of Teaching and Learning for Mesa County School District 51 in Colorado, a district of 43 schools.

Rebecca has presented at a variety of conferences, including iNACOL's Blended & Online Learning Symposium, ASU/GSV Summit, CBE Denver, iNACOL Leadership Forum, Confederation of Oregon School Administrators, Partners in Learning Global Forum and Alaska Society for Technology in Education. She has also presented and trained for the Re-Inventing Schools Coalition, now Marzano Research and Reinventing Schools in five states. Rebecca serves on the Competency Works Advisory Board and Education 4 Leadership \(E4L\).

Rebecca has an M.Ed in educational leadership and an MA in Education. She has worked in charter systems, public comprehensive system, non-profit and state organizations. She has contributed or co-authored national white papers, blogs and published works on personalized learning.

Rebecca is available for all types of speaking and moderating engagements such as keynotes, panel discussions, round tables and workshop sessions. Rebecca regularly speaks on the following:

- » Designing Learning Cultures and System Transformation
- » Learner-Centered Instructional Frameworks & Design
- » Social & Emotional Learning Frameworks

Check out Rebecca's work by viewing her authored blogs and podcasts: Building A Performance Based Educational System, and Mobilizing Change To Meet Learners Where They Are.

Interested in having Rebecca speak at your event? Contact Allison@GettingSmart.com or visit our speakers page.